Office Hours: TBD

Course Description: (Brief description of the content of the course (catalog description))

- A continuation of the capstone design projects started in EE 4081. EE 4082 must be taken in the semester immediately following EE 4081 to maintain project continuity. The student teams provide status reports, a final presentation to faculty and reviewers, and a senior thesis, and bring their design projects to successful completion.

Pre-requisites:

- EE 4081 (Capstone Design I)

Place in Curriculum: This course is required for EE majors.

Course Learning Outcomes:

Course Learning Outcomes:

a) Specific outcomes of instruction

By the end of this course students will be able to

- identify relevant topics from earlier courses and then apply knowledge of those topics to their design project;
- manage a project to include plans for a prototype, testing, evaluation, documentation and project's end;
- clearly communicate concepts and information; and
- work collaboratively and responsibly as an effective team.

b) Student Outcomes addressed by the course.

Students in the electrical engineering program will demonstrate

- (SO3) an ability to communicate effectively with a range of audiences;

- (SO5) an ability to function effectively on a team whose members together provide leadership, create a collaborative and inclusive environment, establish goals, plan tasks, and meet objectives.

Brief list of topics to be covered

- Engineering design
- Construct prototype/proof-of-concept
- Test and evaluate prototype/proof-of-concept
- Teams (dynamics, roles, social skills, constructive conflict)
- Communications (diagrams, presentations, reports, audience)

Student Resources

Wondering where to go for help? Please see the offices below or visit the "Where NMT Students Should Go for Help" website.

Student Success: New Mexico Tech offers numerous peer tutoring services for students who are struggling in their courses, or who just wish to receive friendly advice, including the Office of Student Learning (Skeen Library, <https://www.nmt.edu/osl/>), Math Helproom (<https://www.nmt.edu/academics/math/ugrad/mathhelproom.php>), the Writing and Communication Lab (Skeen Library, <https://www.nmt.edu/academics/class/center.php>), and numerous department-run centers. These services are free of charge to students! Students may also consult the Dean for Student Success Initiatives, Elaine Debrine Howell (Fidel, rm. 237; 575-835-5208; elaine.debrinehowell@nmt.edu) or may receive emails from her if they are struggling in class.

[Please feel free to add information on tutoring or other student success services in your department or elsewhere on campus]

Reasonable Accommodations: New Mexico Tech is committed to protecting the rights of individuals with disabilities and providing access and full participation in the educational experience. Students with disabilities who require reasonable accommodations are invited to make their needs known to the Office for Student Access Services (SAS) as soon as possible. Accommodations are not retroactive and may take some time to implement. The process for requesting accommodations can be found at their website https://nmt.edu/ds/for_students.php

You can contact SAS in person at the Fidel Center Room 245, call 575-835-6209, email access@nmt.edu or book through the link on our website.

Counseling Services: The Counseling Center is very excited to announce that Tech has partnered up with the Virtual Care Group (VCG), to offer free supplemental healthcare services to our degree-seeking students. This virtual healthcare includes unlimited Tele-medical and unlimited Tele-therapy/counseling sessions available 24/7, as well as life coaching. Both in-person sessions on campus and this virtual healthcare are available for those degree-seeking students currently enrolled for Fall classes. Download The Virtual Care Group app from your app store. For questions about the platform, please email VCG's Care Team at care@virtualcaregroup.com. For more information on services at NMT, please call 835-6619, email counseling@nmt.edu or check out our website at <https://www.nmt.edu/cds/>.

Respect Statement: New Mexico Tech supports freedom of expression within the parameters of a respectful learning environment. As stated in the New Mexico Tech Guide to Conduct and Citizenship: "New Mexico Tech's primary purpose is education, which includes teaching, research, discussion, learning, and service. An atmosphere of free and open inquiry is essential to the pursuit of education. Tech seeks to protect academic freedom and build on individual responsibility to create and maintain an academic atmosphere that is a purposeful, just, open, disciplined, and caring community."

Title IX Reporting: Sexual misconduct, sexual violence, and other forms of sexual misconduct and gender-based discrimination are contrary to the University's mission and core values, violate university policies, and may also violate state and federal law (Title IX). Faculty members are considered “Responsible Employees” and are required to report incidents of these prohibited behaviors. Any such reports should be directed to Tech’s Title IX Coordinator (Dr. Peter Phaiiah, 238 Fidel Student Center, 575-835-5953 (O), 575-322-0001 (C), titleixcoordinator@nmt.edu) or reports can be filed online to Tech’s Title IX & Sexual Misconduct Report. Please visit Tech’s Title IX Website (www.nmt.edu/titleix) for additional information and resources.
